CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

After holding 150 shows, you would think we'd be getting the hang of it by now. However, the weather has a great deal to say on the success of a village show. Although one thing we do have in our favour is a fantastic group of people willing to give their time and expertise in making Harbottle show happen. Our show is family orientated, with plenty for the kids to get involved in. Entries to the industrial tent are taken on the day, so even if you are here on holiday, have a go at rustling something up in the holiday cottage kitchen.

There are sports for the children, as well as quoits for all ages. The Cumberland wrestling is a bit more specialised, however if you have the skill again entries are taken on the day.

The music tent is always popular, and this year we must thank Malcolm Burke who is stepping down as tent director for all his hard work over the years establishing and running the tent. The baton is being handed over as I write and a full program of music is lined up. Well done, Malcolm.

The sheep show will again showcase the valley's finest, and is a great chance to get a look at those woolly creatures up close. If you are feeling in need of refreshment, then the tea tent can see you right, and don't miss the craft and trade tent for a delightful collection of local craft and produce to buy.

So we hope you come along and enjoy our show, with one of the finest settings in the valley.

On a Sad Note

Earlier this year the valley lost one of its greatest characters.

John Common was 98 when he died and had attended more than 80 Harbottle Shows, only missing those whilst serving in the Coldstream Guards. It is also believed that John was the last WW2 veteran in the valley.

As a long standing committee member of the Show, John served as Treasurer for many years along side Show Chairmen Tommy Logan, Bobby Edmondson and John Rayner. He was also Show President from 2013 to 2018 and a great supporter of the Show providing the perfect setting in Oak Tree Field on his farm. He was a man of many talents: farmer, postman, school car driver, as well as serving his country during the war years. Those who knew him well will fondly remember his recollections of valley life and great sense of humour.

More recently, April Common wife of George and daughter in law of John lost her battle with cancer. April was another great supporter of the show and served on the committee for many years. With a great sense of humour and personality. She will be sadly missed.

And in this years music tent!!

We've brought you a superb line up of musical talent for this years show.

The Rob Heron Trio - Rob Heron has an enviable music pedigree - his music transcends the music genres of rockabilly, blues, country, swing and soul. Look forward to an energetic performance full of good music and dry humour from this talented trio!!!

The Lumaches - a performing, writing and production duo based in Leeds but with roots in Holystone (Mac Fielding and Cat O'Neill) !! Their sound is described as 'alt folk jazz'. Hear summery bossa nova rhythms with soulful and conversational lyric delivery.

James Tait - a well known local musician and song writer, renowned for his melodious playing and relaxed renditions of Northumbrian music as well as popular modern songs. Sit back, chill and enjoy todays performance.

A truly eclectic mix of genres and fabulous music for all tastes!

TRADE & CRAFT TENT

A variety of local crafts will be demonstrated and on display along with all sorts of trade stands from the area. Come and browse to find some special gifts or even an early Christmas present.

THANK YOU

Once again we would like to thank everyone who has supported the show this year by giving generous donations, supporting the fundraising quiz nights & raffles, offering sponsorship or advertising. It's what helps keep the Show going.
